The Decision Health Platinum Awards have always recognized professionals who strive to improve health care delivery and positively impact the lives of those they serve. In honor of Patrice V. Sminkey's memory, Decision Health introduced the Patrice V. Sminkey Memorial Award to the 2017 Platinum Awards program. This award was given to the best overall program or individual and all entries submitted to the Platinum Awards were eligible. The winner of the 2017 Patrice V. Sminkey Memorial Award was TripleCare.

TripleCare minimizes rehospitalizations by using telemedicine. Their innovative service is designed to support Medicare's Triple Aim - great care, healthier communities and a marked impact on reducing medical costs. We invite you to honor Patrice's legacy and celebrate successes taking place across the health care continuum as we congratulate TripleCare.
